Attorney Hyppa represented the decedent in a 1992 Santa Clara County matter involving "swindle" of real property. On 1/27/2002, Deputy Public Administrator Nina Acosta appeared in Court for a Settlement Conference. No settlement was reached and the case was set for trial the following week. On 2/12/2002 Mr. Hyppa sent an email to the Public Administrator stating that the Judge had decided against him. If the judgment had been awarded, it would have been the sole asset of the estate. Therefore, the Public Administrator never had control of any other assets, and the estate remains insolvent. After receiving the Notice of Status Hearing, Deputy Public Administrator Noe Jimenez called Attorney Hyppa, who reported that the case was essentially lost due to the statute of limitations. The Public Administrator requests to have this estate dismissed and he be discharged. There were never any assets to marshal, so no accounting is required.

DOD: 3/6/1999	SANDRA PEREZ was appointed as Administrator with Will Annexed with Limited IAEA authority and without bond on 3/13/2007.	NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS:
Cont. from 091313	Letters issued on 3/13/2007.	Note: The Inventory and Appraisal shows the value of the real property at the date of death at $72,000. The petition for probate indicated the property had $6,581 in encumbrances. The property was sold at foreclosure in 2008 for $47,500.00. The court may inquire if the Administrator received any proceeds from the foreclosure and what happened to them. The beneficiary of this estate is the decedent's grandson, Jose Angel Perez. Status Report Regarding Inventory and Appraisal and Final Distribution filed by the Public Administrator on 11/4/2013, continued:

- The Court instructed the Public Administrator to gather bank statements and other information regarding the assets; he has done so to the extent he can within a short time period;
- The problem for the Public Administrator is not what assets there were or where they went;
- The question is what authority the estate has to recover assets from a spouse;
- It is alleged that Ms. Eugenia Meisel was the Decedent's care giver at one time; if so, Probate Code § 21350 would render any devise to her as an invalid donative transfer;
- However, she married the Decedent; twice, in fact;
- Therefore, the Public Administrator does not know how to characterize the transfer, and thus, does not know if he should seek to recover property or not;
- That is the instruction he needs from the Court.

Status Report Regarding Inventory and Appraisal and Final Distribution filed by the Public Administrator on 10/9/2013 states:

- No Letters have been issued to the Public Administrator because as of now, it is unclear if there are assets to be administered;
- According to Ms. Midkiff, the Decedent and EUGENIA MEISEL were married twice; the timeline she provided is as follows:
  - 3/18/1996: EUGENIA ORONA filed for divorce from her husband, RICHARD ORONA;
  - 7/29/1998: EUGENIA married the Decedent;
  - 11/9/2001: EUGENIA divorced the Decedent;
  - June 2002: EUGENIA remarried her ex-husband, RICHARD ORONA;
  - 11/4/2006: EUGENIA divorced her ex-husband, RICHARD ORONA;
  - 11/7/2006: EUGENIA remarried the Decedent.
- The Court is respectfully referred to the declarations of Margaret Midkiff and Eugenia Meisel filed on 7/2/2012 and 8/15/2012 [please see notes below]; there are also comments regarding some of the assets on the Inventory and Appraisal that was filed on 7/2/2012;
- The Court is respectfully referred to the declarations of Margaret Midkiff and Eugenia Meisel filed on 7/2/2012 and 8/15/2012 [please see below]; there are also comments regarding some of the assets on the Inventory and Appraisal that was filed on 7/2/2012;
- The Public Administrator was appointed presumably to close the estate; however, he is unsure of how to do so given the accusations by each party;
- The Decedent was 58 when he first married Eugenia, so an elder abuse claim does not seem applicable;
- There is also no allegation that he was a dependent adult; however, Ms. Midkiff makes an argument that he was suffering from Alzheimer's by then;
- The Decedent remarried Eugenia at age 66; throughout their years together, Ms. Midkiff alleges that Eugenia was taking real and personal property; she says that Eugenia was even taking trust property that was never meant to be touched;
- The Public Administrator, and particularly his attorney, are reticent to continue asking the Court for instructions, but there is not a clear answer regarding what he should do in this case;
- The Decedent was not an elderly adult at the time he first married Eugenia; when she was given property, as alleged by her, they were married;
- Thus, the first reaction would be that there are little or no assets; however, the allegation of financial abuse/misappropriation and of a diagnosis of Alzheimer's may make this case unique;
- The Public Administrator has no choice but to request guidance from the Court about the next steps to be taken toward closing this estate;
- It is unclear how long of a continuance will be necessary pending the direction of the Court.

Declaration filed by EUGENIA ORONA MEISEL, spouse, on 8/15/2012 states:

- With respect to the Inventory and Appraisal No. 1, which she just received from Margaret Midkiff, her husband, David Meisel, did not have any assets as listed;
- David Meisel's last Social Security payment, that was deposited directly into their joint account, was taken out by Social Security;
- As to items number 5 and 6 for the IRA Distributions and pensions and Annuities, it is unclear how these amounts were determined by Margaret Midkiff; she cannot verify that these amounts are correct; as far as she knows, there was no money for IRA or any pensions or annuities;
- As far as the Montana property, she spoke with Mark Pyrex, who informed her that he handled the property sale for her husband, and he will verify that she had nothing to do with the sale;
- As to the Inventory and Appraisal Attachment No. 2, she does not know how the value was calculated; most of these items were lost in the fire at their home, except for David's hats, money clip, buckle, one watch, Marine necklace and a Marine ring; new furniture was purchased with community funds after the fire.

Declaration filed by MARGARET A. MIDKIFF, daughter, on 7/2/2012 states:

- On 1/29/2010, she asked Eugenia Orona if her dad had a will, and Eugenia told her "There is no will, there is nothing."
- David Meisel worked for the IRS until 2/2008, when he got lost going to work; her dad was not officially diagnosed with Alzheimer's Disease until 5/15/2008; her dad was admitted the last month of his life into Kaiser Permanente Hospital, and he died from Sepsis syndrome as a result of a urinary tract infection left untreated in the hospital; Eugenia Orona said her dad dies from Alzheimer's Disease; they found out the real cause of his death after obtaining an official copy of the death certificate;
- Eugenia Orona cancelled her dad's medical insurance policy in 6/2008 because she said that they could not afford the monthly insurance payment; at that time, her dad was receiving monthly social security benefits of $1,858.00, her dad had two Smith & Barney accounts, a Money Market account of $48,890.13, and retirement account of $42,703.78, in addition to her dad's home that was free and clear with no monthly mortgage payment;
- Her dad had a safe deposit box that was emptied and closed by Eugenia Orona sometime before her dad's death, and she is the only one that knows what was in the safe deposit box in Sanger, CA;
- Eugenia Orona has the mineral rights agreement from the on their family property in Montana that is in a Trust, with a Trust bank account at Bank of America; this has been confirmed with her dad's CPA, and on her dad's tax returns; there is not income every year because the income that is received on the mineral rights is based on actual drilling that takes place that year, and is not a consistent amount every year;
- David Meisel's name was taken off of his home on 3/12/2008, and put into Eugenia Orona's name and then Eugenia Orona put the home in her son's name, RICHARD ORONA, JR. on 9/3/2008;
- David Meisel's name was taken off his vehicle title in 6/2008 (vehicles he owned were 1997 Ford and 2007 GMC), and put into Eugenia Orona's son's name, RICHARD ORONA, JR.;
- David Meisel married Eugenia Orona on 11/8/2006; David Meisel filed for divorce 7/2/2008 and then filed to have the divorce dismissed on 9/16/2008;

~Please see additional page~

Declaration filed by MARGARET A. MIDKIFF, daughter, on 7/2/2012, continued:

- She (Margaret Midkiff) arranged for a Marine Military Honor Detail for her dad's burial with the Sanger Marine Chapter; Eugenia Orona promised to send the flag he was buried with to me, but she never did;
- After David Meisel's death, Eugenia Orona stated on 7/28/2010, witness by Officer Reinhart at the Sanger Police Department, stated that Eugenia had filed a lawsuit for wrongful death against Kaiser Permanente, after he died; she asked Eugenia what happened, and Eugenia refused to explain to her;
- David Meisel originally purchased his home in Sanger on 5/7/1999, then in 7/2002 his home completely burned to the ground; he was able to rebuild his home through a payout from proceeds of the Allstate insurance policy along with proceeds from PGE payout because the fire was caused by a wire that dropped on his roof and the power to the wire could not be turned off for 1 ½ hours; David Meisel was a single man at that time;
- Eugenia Orona put her father's headstone on his grave 1 ½ years after his death, and would not allow any of his children to purchase a headstone for his grave; finally, when she put a headstone on his grave, it is a little marker that says "David Meisel, Marine Corps, 4/30/1940 to 2/21/2009, Eugenia Orona 7/20/1951 to ....."
- Eugenia Orona didn't include "Beloved Husband, Father & Grandfather, He will be missed;" nothing endearing or acknowledging that he was more than a name, that he had 5 children who loved him and miss him so much!
